

Winfield Pre-Kindergarten Parent Guide

"Play is often talked about as if it were a relief from serious learning. But for children, play is serious learning. Play is really the work of childhood."

- Fred Rogers

Program Philosophy

The foundation for learning is a responsibility that is shared by family, professional staff members, and members of a child's community. Everyone plays a vital role in building a stronger and brighter future for our children. It is for this reason that family members and members of the community are encouraged to be actively involved in the program on an on-going basis. Parents are encouraged to work closely with their child's teacher to ensure that their child is receiving the best of care and to ensure that they are receiving the support they may need that will enable them to learn and grow. Children will be provided a safe and nurturing environment where they are given the opportunity to learn and develop at a pace that is appropriate for them. In order to meet the learning needs of children and to encourage them to learn and grow it is important to understand who they are as an individual. An important way to understand a child is to try to look at the world through their eyes. It is only then that you are able to make decisions that are developmentally appropriate for them. As a caregiver, we are able to set clear goals for learning and development that are both achievable and challenging for each child. We are able to make informed decisions regarding their learning, care, support, and safety. As well, we strive to understand each child in order to ensure that what they are learning in the program is respectful for both the child and their family. All children, regardless of their circumstances, are to be treated with equality, dignity, and respect. All children, regardless of their circumstances, have the capability to learn and succeed in their daily lives. Children will be provided opportunities to learn and grow from their own learning experiences. Children will be encouraged to complete tasks on their own with support and guidance from staff members and everyone will be encouraged to work together as a team. Children will be encouraged to help other children complete tasks. Children learn from their own experiences and from their surroundings. The importance of play and social interaction is an important part of every child's life. Through these experiences children learn how to interact with other children and adults. It plays an important role in their development of social, emotional, physical, and mental skills. From these experiences they become more confident in themselves and more independent. They are given the opportunity to have fun learning. It is important to create positive experiences for children that will enable them to feel better about themselves and that will leave a lasting impression on their lives. Children who are active in their surroundings and in what they are learning lead a more productive and fulfilling life-style.

Child Discipline Policy

Children are encouraged to interact with each other in a safe, appropriate, and respectable manner. We are strongly committed to providing a safe and nurturing environment in which all children are able to learn, to play, and to grow from their experiences. Boundaries are put in place to ensure that children are kept safe at all times. For example, children are not allowed to leave the classroom unless an adult is with them. By setting of appropriate boundaries for children they learn to respect themselves as well as others, they feel more secure and comfortable within their surroundings, they learn how to resolve problems in a constructive and positive manner, they learn how to express their feelings in a safe and appropriate manner, they learn how to make responsible choices, learn how to become more independent, and learn how to be accountable for the choices that they make.

**Please note: Biting, name calling, acting out in an aggressive manner, and bullying will not be tolerated. The child's parents or legal guardian will be notified immediately by phone of the incident. The child's parents or legal guardian will also be notified in writing of the incident. As well, a meeting will be set up to discuss the matter in greater detail. Matters of this nature will be taken seriously. An Incident Report will be completed and placed in the child's file. The Licensing Officer will be immediately notified of the incident and will be provided copies of all information pertaining to the matter. Depending upon the severity of the incident, the child may be removed from the program.

The following methods will be used to encourage children to resolve problems and to express themselves in an appropriate and safe matter:

Natural Consequences - Through these experiences children will learn how to make responsible choices and how to be accountable for the choices that they make. For example, "If you break the crayons you will not be able to use them to finish coloring your picture."

"I " Statement - Through these experiences children learn how to identify what they may be feeling, why they may be feeling that way, and how their behavior affects others. The teacher or child is able to state their feelings about a child's behavior and why they may feel that way. "I feel sad when someone won't share with me. Sarah, how does it make you feel when Sally doesn't want to read the book with you?"

Giving of Information: The teacher will provide the child with encouragement, guidance, support and understanding. The teacher will ask the child open-ended questions relating to what the child may be doing in order to help the child identify what it is that they are doing and what could happen as a result of their actions. For example, "What could happen if we stand on the chair?" "Chairs are for sitting on and not for standing on."

Making Choices: The teacher will encourage children to make positive choices. Children will be provided with acknowledgement of when they are making positive choices. Through these experiences children learn how to make independent and responsible choices. They learn how to be accountable for their behavior. The teacher will provide the child with choices of what they can do. For example, "Tommy you can have the blue cup or the yellow cup to use for painting."

Contingencies: A contingency is a situation in which a second action is determined based upon the child's first action. For example, "When you put away the puzzle we can read a story."

Please Note: In accordance to Schedule 5 of the Child Care Licensing Regulations:

1. Children are not to be denied or threatened to be denied any basic necessity as a form of child discipline.
